About Quantico Tactical

Join a mission-focused team dedicated to providing premier operational equipment to military and federal agencies worldwide. Many of our team members are veterans, and we carry those values of integrity, accountability, and unyielding dedication into everything we do. We offer a fast-paced environment where your work directly supports those on the front lines.

Role Overview

We are seeking an experienced, high-energy Buyer to manage the lifecycle of finished goods from manufacturer to the Federal Government. This isn't just about placing orders; we need a strategic thinker who can manage 100+ vendor relationships, mitigate supply chain risks, and ensure profitable, on-time delivery.

Key Responsibilities:

- Strategic Sourcing: Develop and execute purchasing strategies; negotiate optimal terms and close deals with a diverse supplier base.
- Inventory & Risk Management: Monitor demand forecasts, manage inventory levels, and proactively mitigate supply chain risks.
- Operations & Logistics: Issue and track POs through closure; coordinate vehicle loads and journeys; ensure compliance with shipping legislation and company policies.
- Performance Tracking: Report on functional metrics to reduce expenses and improve fulfillment effectiveness.
- Stakeholder Partnership: Work closely with internal teams to ensure clear requirements and documentation for regulatory bodies.
- Special projects as assigned

Skills & Qualifications:

- Experience: Proven track record in purchasing (finished goods for resale preferred; manufacturing experience welcome).
- Technical Savvy: Advanced Microsoft Excel skills are required for reporting. Ability to navigate complex workflows across multiple platforms.
- Communication: Impeccable written and oral communication; a natural knack for networking and negotiation.
- Mindset: Independent, process-driven, and thrives under a sense of urgency.
- Industry Knowledge: A genuine interest in the firearms and tactical industry is a significant plus.
- Education: Bachelor's or Associate degree (relevant experience will be considered).
- Compliance: Must pass a drug screen and background check.

Application Instructions

A cover letter with your resume is strongly recommended. If you do not live in the Aberdeen, NC area but are relocating, please provide details in your cover letter or you will not be considered. Only candidates selected for interviews will be contacted.
